Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2023 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2022 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2023. You had no federal income tax liability in 2022 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2022 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2023 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2024.

Your privacy. If you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c).

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay income and self-employment taxes through withholding from your wages, you should enter the self-employment income on Step 4(a). Then compute your self-employment tax, divide that tax by the number of pay periods remaining in the year, and include that resulting amount per pay period on Step 4(c). You can also add half of the annual amount of self-employment tax to Step 4(b) as a deduction. To calculate self-employment tax, you generally multiply the self-employment income by 14.13% (this rate is a quick way to figure your self-employment tax and equals the sum of the 12.4% social security tax and the 2.9% Medicare tax multiplied by 0.9235). See Pub. 505 for more information, especially if the sum of self-employment income multiplied by 0.9235 and wages exceeds $160,200 for a given individual.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2023 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

(c) ☐ Soltero o Casado que presenta una declaración por separado ☐ Casado que presenta una declaración conjunta o Viudo que reúne los requisitos ☐ Cabeza de familia (Marque solamente si no está casado y paga más de la mitad del costo de mantener una vivienda para usted y una persona calificada).

Complete los Pasos 2 a 4 SOLAMENTE si le aplican a usted; de lo contrario, siga al Paso 5. Vea la página 2 para obtener más información sobre cada paso, saber quién puede reclamar la exención de la retención, saber cuándo utilizar el estimador de retención de impuestos en www.irs.gov/W4AppSP y conocer acerca de su privacidad.

Paso 2:Personas con múltiples empleos o con cónyuges que trabajan

Complete este paso si (1) tiene más de un trabajo a la vez o (2) está casado y presenta una declaración conjunta y su cónyuge también trabaja. La cantidad correcta de retención depende de los ingresos obtenidos de todos los empleos.

Tome sólo una de las siguientes opciones:

(a) Utilice el estimador de retención de impuestos en www.irs.gov/W4AppSP para calcular su retención con la mayor precisión en este paso (y en los Pasos 3 a 4); o

(b) Utilice la Hoja de Trabajo para Múltiples Empleos en la página 3 y anote el resultado en el Paso 4(c) para calcular una retención aproximada; o

(c) Marque este recuadro si sólo hay dos empleos en total. Haga lo mismo en el Formulario W-4(SP) para el otro empleo. Esta opción es precisa para empleos con una paga similar; de lo contrario, se le pueden retener más impuestos de lo necesario ► ☐

CONSEJO: Para un resultado preciso, entregue un Formulario W-4(SP) de 2022 en todos los otros empleos. Si usted (o su cónyuge) tiene ingresos del trabajo por cuenta propia, incluidos los ingresos como contratista independiente, utilice el estimador.

Complete los Pasos 3 a 4(b) en el Formulario W-4(SP) para sólo UNO de sus empleos. Deje esas líneas en blanco para los otros empleos. (Su cálculo de la retención será más preciso si completa los Pasos 3 a 4(b) en el Formulario W-4(SP) para el empleo que le paga el salario más alto).

Paso 3:Reclamación de dependientes

Si su ingreso total va a ser $200,000 o menos ($400,000 o menos si es casado que presenta una declaración conjunta):

Multiplique la cantidad de hijos calificados menores de 17 años por $2,000 ► $

Multiplique el número de otros dependientes por $500 ► $

Paso 4 (opcional):Otros ajustes

(a) Otros ingresos (no incluya los ingresos de ningún empleo). Si desea que se le retengan impuestos por otros ingresos que espera este año que no tendrán retenciones, anote aquí la cantidad de los otros ingresos. Esto puede incluir intereses, dividendos e ingresos por jubilación 4(a) $

(b) Deducciones. Si espera reclamar deducciones diferentes a la deducción estándar y desea reducir su retención, utilice la Hoja de Trabajo para Deducciones en la página 3 y anote el resultado aquí 4(b) $

(c) Retención adicional. Anote todo impuesto adicional que desee que se le retenga en cada período de pago 4(c) $

Instrucciones Generales

Acontecimientos Futuros

Para la información más reciente sobre los acontecimientos relacionados al Formulario W-4(SP), como legislación tributaria promulgada después de que éste ha sido publicado, visite www.irs.gov/FormW4SP.

Propósito del Formulario

Complete el Formulario W-4(SP) para que su empleador pueda retener la cantidad correcta del impuesto federal sobre los ingresos de su paga. Si no se le retiene una cantidad suficiente, por lo general, adeudará impuestos cuando presente su declaración de impuestos y puede estar sujeto a una multa. Si se le retiene demasiado, por lo general, recibirá un reembolso. Complete un Formulario W-4(SP) nuevo cuando cambios a su situación personal o financiera modificaran las entradas en el formulario. Para obtener más información sobre la retención y cuándo presentar un Formulario W-4(SP) nuevo, vea la Publicación 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax (Retención de impuestos e impuesto estimado), en inglés.

Exención de la retención. Puede reclamar la exención de la retención para 2022 si ambas situaciones a continuación le corresponden: para 2021, usted no tenía obligación tributaria federal y para 2022, usted espera no tener obligación tributaria federal. Usted no adeudó ningún impuesto federal sobre los ingresos en 2021 si (1) su impuesto total en la línea 24 de su Formulario 1040, 1040(SP), 1040-SR o 1040-SR(SP) de 2021 es cero (o si la línea 24 es menor que la suma de las líneas 27a, 28, 29 y 30) o (2) no estaba obligado a presentar una declaración de impuestos porque su ingreso estaba por debajo del umbral de presentación para su estado civil para efectos de la declaración correcta. Si reclama una exención, no se le retendrá ningún impuesto sobre los ingresos de su cheque de paga y puede estar sujeto a impuestos y multas cuando presente su declaración de impuestos de 2022. Para reclamar la exención de la retención, certifique que cumple con ambas condiciones anteriores escribiendo “Exempt” (Exento) en el Formulario W-4(SP) en el espacio debajo del Paso 4(c). Luego, complete los Pasos 1(a), 1(b) y 5. No complete ningún otro paso en el Formulario W-4(SP). Si reclama una exención de la retención, deberá presentar un Formulario W-4(SP) nuevo antes del 15 de febrero de 2023.

Su privacidad. Si prefiere limitar la información proporcionada en los Pasos 2 a 4, utilice el estimador de retención de impuestos en línea, el cual también aumentará la precisión.

Como alternativa al estimador de retención de impuestos: si le preocupa divulgar su información en el Paso 2(c), puede escoger el Paso 2(b); si le preocupa divulgar su información en el Paso 4(a), puede anotar una cantidad adicional que desea que se le retenga por cada período de pago en el Paso 4(c). Si éste es el único empleo en su unidad familiar, puede marcar el recuadro en el Paso 2(c), lo cual aumentará su retención y reducirá significativamente su cheque de paga (a menudo por miles de dólares a lo largo del año).

Cuándo usar el estimador de retención de impuestos. Considere usar el estimador de retención de impuestos en www.irs.gov/W4AppSP si usted:

1. Espera trabajar sólo parte del año;
2. Tiene ingresos por dividendos o ganancias de capital o sus ingresos están sujetos a impuestos adicionales, como el Impuesto Adicional del Medicare;
3. Tiene ingresos del trabajo por cuenta propia (vea a continuación). Por lo general, adeudará tanto el impuesto sobre los ingresos como el impuesto sobre el trabajo por cuenta propia por cualquier ingreso del trabajo por cuenta propia que reciba, aparte del salario que reciba como empleado; o
4. Prefiere determinar su retención con mayor precisión para situaciones de múltiples empleos.

Ingresos del trabajo por cuenta propia. Por lo general, adeudará tanto el impuesto sobre los ingresos como el impuesto sobre el trabajo por cuenta propia por cualquier ingreso que reciba, aparte del salario que reciba como empleado. Si quiere pagar estos impuestos por medio de la retención de sus salarios, use el estimador de retención de impuestos en www.irs.gov/W4AppSP para calcular la cantidad que se tiene que retener.

Extranjero no residente. Si es extranjero no residente, vea el Aviso 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens (Instrucciones suplementarias del Formulario W-4 para extranjeros no residentes), en inglés, antes de completar este formulario.

Instrucciones Específicas

Paso 1(c). Verifique su estado civil anticipado para efectos de la declaración. Esto determinará la deducción estándar y las tasas de impuesto utilizadas para calcular su retención.

Paso 2. Utilice este paso si (1) tiene más de un trabajo a la vez o (2) es casado que presenta una declaración conjunta y tanto su cónyuge como usted trabajan.

La opción (a) calcula con mayor precisión el impuesto adicional que se le tiene que retener, mientras que la opción (b) lo calcula con menor precisión.

Si usted (y su cónyuge) tiene sólo un total de dos empleos, puede marcar el recuadro en la opción (c). El recuadro también tiene que estar marcado en el Formulario W-4(SP) para el otro empleo. Si el recuadro está marcado, la deducción estándar y las escalas de impuestos para cada empleo se reducirán a la mitad para calcular la retención. Esta opción es más o menos precisa para empleos con remuneración similar; de no ser así, se le pueden retener más impuestos de lo necesario y esta cantidad adicional será mayor, mientras más grande sea la diferencia salarial entre los dos empleos.

Múltiples empleos. Complete los Pasos 3 a 4(b) en sólo un Formulario W-4(SP). La retención se calculará con mayor precisión si hace esto en el Formulario W-4(SP) para el empleo que le paga el salario más alto.

Paso 3. Este paso provee instrucciones para determinar la cantidad del crédito tributario por hijos y el crédito por otros dependientes que puede reclamar cuando presente su declaración de impuestos. Para ser considerado hijo calificado para propósitos del crédito tributario por hijos, el hijo tiene que ser menor de 17 años de edad para el 31 de diciembre, tiene que ser su dependiente que, por lo general, vive con usted por más de la mitad del año y tiene que tener un número de Seguro Social válido. Es posible que pueda reclamar un crédito por otros dependientes por los cuales no puede reclamar un crédito tributario por hijos, como un hijo mayor o un pariente calificado. Para informarse sobre los requisitos adicionales de estos créditos, vea la Publicación 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information (Dependientes, deducción estándar e información para la presentación de la declaración), en inglés. También puede incluir otros créditos tributarios para los cuales usted es elegible en este paso, como el crédito por impuestos extranjeros y los créditos tributarios por estudios. Para hacerlo, sume una cantidad estimada para el año a sus créditos por dependientes y anote la cantidad total en el Paso 3. La inclusión de estos créditos aumentará su cheque de paga y reducirá la cantidad de cualquier reembolso que pueda recibir cuando presente su declaración de impuestos.

Paso 4 (opcional).

Paso 4(a). Anote en este paso el total de sus otros ingresos estimados para el año, si corresponde. No debe incluir los ingresos de ningún empleo o ingresos del trabajo por cuenta propia. Si completa el Paso 4(a), es probable que no tenga que hacer pagos de impuesto estimado para ese ingreso. Si prefiere pagar el impuesto estimado en lugar de tener impuestos sobre otros ingresos retenidos de su cheque de paga, vea el Formulario 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals (Impuesto estimado para personas físicas), en inglés.

Paso 4(b). Anote en este paso la cantidad proveniente de la línea 5 de la Hoja de Trabajo para Deducciones si espera reclamar otras deducciones que no sean la deducción estándar básica en su declaración de impuestos de 2022 y desea reducir su retención para contabilizar estas deducciones. Esto incluye sus deducciones detalladas y otras deducciones, como los intereses de préstamos estudiantiles y las contribuciones a los arreglos IRA.

Paso 4(c). Anote en este paso cualquier impuesto adicional que desee retener de su paga en cada período de pago, incluida cualquier cantidad proveniente de la línea 4 de la Hoja de Trabajo para Múltiples Empleos. El anotar una cantidad aquí reducirá su cheque de paga y aumentará su reembolso o reducirá cualquier cantidad de impuesto que usted adeude.

Paso 2(b) – Hoja de Trabajo para Múltiples Empleos (Guardar en sus archivos)

Complete esta hoja de trabajo si escoge la opción en el Paso 2(b) del Formulario W-4(SP) (la cual calcula el impuesto total adicional para todos los empleos) sólo en UN Formulario W-4(SP). La retención de impuestos será calculada con mayor precisión si completa la hoja de trabajo y si anota el resultado en el Formulario W-4(SP) para el empleo que le paga el salario MÁS ALTO.

Nota: Si más de un empleo tiene salarios anuales de más de $120,000 o si existen más de tres empleos, vea la Publicación 505 para ver tablas adicionales; o puede utilizar el estimador de retención de impuestos en www.irs.gov/W4AppSP.

SAMPLE

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

A. Number. The more exemptions you claim on this certificate, the less tax withheld from your employer. If you claim more exemptions than you are entitled to, civil and criminal penalties may be imposed. However, you may claim a smaller number of exemptions without penalty. If you do not file a certificate, your employer must withhold on the basis of no exemptions.

If you expect to owe more income tax than will be withheld, you may either claim a smaller number of exemptions or enter into an agreement with your employer to have additional amounts withheld.

You should claim the total number of exemptions to which you are entitled to prevent excessive overwithholding, unless you have a significant amount of other income. Underwithholding may result in owing additional taxes to the Commonwealth at the end of the year.

If you work for more than one employer at the same time, you must not claim any exemptions with employers other than your principal employer.

If you are married and if your spouse is subject to withholding, each may claim a personal exemption.

B. Changes. You may file a new certificate at any time if the number of exemptions increases. You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you decreases. For example, if during the year your dependent son's income indicates that you will not provide over half of his support for the year, you must file a new certificate.

C. Spouse. If your spouse is not working or if she or he is working but not claiming the personal exemption or the age 65 or over exemption, generally you may claim those exemptions in line 2. However, if you are planning to file separate annual tax returns, you should not claim withholding exemptions for your spouse or for any dependents that will not be claimed on your annual tax return.

If claiming a spouse, write "4" in line 2. Entering "4" makes a withholding system adjustment for the $4,400 exemption for a spouse.

D. Dependent(s). You may claim an exemption in line 3 for each individual who qualifies as a dependent under the Federal Income Tax Law. In addition, if one or more of your dependents will be under age 12 at year end, add "1" to your dependents total for line 3.

You are not allowed to claim "federal withholding deductions and adjustments" under the Massachusetts withholding system.

If you have income not subject to withholding, you are urged to have additional amounts withheld to cover your tax liability on such income. See line 5.

- Lists of Acceptable Documents
- Supplement A, Preparer and/or Translator Certification for Section 1
- Supplement B, Reverification and Rehire (formerly Section 3)

EMPLOYEES

Employees must complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9 no later than the first day of employment (i.e., the date the employee begins performing labor or services in the United States in return for wages or other remuneration). Employees may complete Section 1 before the first day of employment, but cannot complete the form before acceptance of an offer of employment.

EMPLOYERS

Employers in the United States, except Puerto Rico, must complete the English-language version of Form I-9. Only employers located in Puerto Rico may complete the Spanish-language version of Form I-9 instead of the English-language version. Any employer may use the Spanish-language form and instructions as a translation tool.

All employers must:

- Make the instructions for Form I-9 and Lists of Acceptable Documents available to the employee when completing the Form I-9 and when requesting that the employee present documentation to complete Supplement B, Reverification and Rehire. See page 5 for more information.
- Ensure that the employee completes Section 1.
- Complete Section 2 within three business days after the employee's first day of employment. If you hire an individual for less than three business days, complete Section 2 no later than the first day of employment.
- Complete Supplement B, Reverification and Rehire when applicable.
- Leave a field blank if it does not apply and allow employees to leave fields blank in Section 1, where appropriate.
- Retain completed forms. You are not required to retain or store the page(s) containing the Lists of Acceptable Documents or the instructions for Form I-9. Do not mail completed forms to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Additional guidance about how to complete Form I-9 may be found in the Handbook for Employers: Guidance for Completing Form I-9 \(M-274\) and on I-9 Central.

Section 1: Employee Information and Attestation

Step 1: Employee completes Section 1 no later than the first day of employment.

- All employees must provide their current legal name, complete address, and date of birth. If other fields do not apply, leave them blank.
- When completing the name fields, enter your current legal name and any last names you previously used, including any hyphens or punctuation. If you only have one name, enter it in the Last Name field and then enter "Unknown" in the First Name field.
- Providing your 9-digit Social Security number in the Social Security number field is voluntary, unless your employer participates in E-Verify. See page 5 for instructions related to E-Verify. Do not enter an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) as your Social Security number.

Step 2: Attest to your citizenship or immigration status.

You must select one box to attest to your citizenship or immigration status.

1. A citizen of the United States.
2. A noncitizen national of the United States: An individual born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.
3. A lawful permanent resident: An individual who is not a U.S. citizen and who resides in the United States under legally recognized and lawfully recorded permanent residence as an immigrant.

Conditional residents should select this status. Asylees and refugees should NOT select this status; they should instead select "A noncitizen authorized to work." If you select "lawful permanent resident," enter your 7- to 9-digit USCIS Number (A-Number) in the space provided.

- 4. A noncitizen (other than Item Numbers 2. and 3. above) authorized to work: An individual who has authorization to work but is not a U.S. citizen, noncitizen national, or lawful permanent resident.

If you select this box, enter the date that your employment authorization expires, if any, in the space provided. In most cases, your employment authorization expiration date is found on the documentation evidencing your employment authorization. If your employment authorization documentation has been automatically extended by the issuing authority, enter the expiration date of the automatic extension in this space.

- Refugees, asylees, and certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau, and other noncitizens authorized to work whose employment authorization does not have an expiration date, should enter N/A in the Expiration Date field.

Employees who select "a noncitizen authorized to work" must enter one of the following to complete Section 1:

- (1) USCIS Number/A-Number (7 to 9 digits);
- (2) Form I-94 Admission Number (11 digits); or
- (3) Foreign Passport Number and the Country of Issuance

Your employer may not ask for documentation to verify the information you entered in Section 1.

Step 3: Sign and enter the date you signed Section 1. Do NOT back-date this field.

Step 4: Preparer and/or translator completes a Preparer and/or Translator Certification, if applicable.

If a preparer and/or translator assists an employee in completing Section 1, that person must complete a Certification area on Supplement A, Preparer and/or Translator Certification for Section 1, located on Page 3 of Form I-9. There is no limit to the number of preparers and/or translators an employee may use. Each preparer and/or translator must complete and sign a separate Certification area. Employers must ensure that they retain any additional pages with the employee's completed Form I-9. If the employee does not use a preparer or translator, employers are not required to provide or retain Supplement A.

Step 5: Present Form I-9 Documentation

Within three business days after your first day of employment, you, the employee, must present to your employer original, acceptable, and unexpired documentation that establishes your identity and employment authorization. For example, if you begin employment on Monday, you must present documentation on or before the Thursday of that week. However, if you were hired to work for less than three business days, you must present documentation no later than the first day of employment.

Choose which documentation to present to your employer from the Lists of Acceptable Documents. An employer cannot specify which documentation you may present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents. You may present either: 1.) one selection from List A or 2.) a combination of one selection from List B and one selection from List C. In certain cases, you may also present an acceptable receipt for List A, B, or C documents. For more information on receipts, refer to the M-274.

- List A documentations show both identity and employment authorization. Some documentation must be presented together to be considered acceptable List A documentation. If you present acceptable List A documentation, you should not be asked to present List B and List C documentation.
- List B documentation shows identity only and List C documentation shows employment authorization only. If you present acceptable List B and List C documentation, you should not be asked to present List A documentation. Guidance is available in the M-274 if you are under the age of 18 or have a disability (special placement) and cannot provide List B documentation.

Your employer must physically examine the documentation you present to complete Form I-9, or examine them consistent with an alternative procedure authorized by the Secretary of DHS. If your documentation reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to you, your employer must accept the documentation. If your documentation does not reasonably appear to be genuine or to relate to you, your employer must reject it and provide you with an opportunity to present other documentation. Your employer may choose to make copies of your documentation, but must return the original(s) to you. Your employer may not ask for documentation to verify the information you entered in Section 1.

Section 2: Employer Review and Verification

Before completing Section 2, you, the employer, should review Section 1. If you find any errors or missing information in Section 1, the employee must correct the error, and then initial and date the correction.

You may designate an authorized representative to act on your behalf to complete Section 2.

You or your authorized representative must complete Section 2 by physically examining evidence of the employee's identity and employment authorization within three business days after the employee's first day of employment. For example, if an employee begins employment on Monday, you must review the employee's documentation and complete Section 2 on or before the Thursday of that week. However, if the individual will work for less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed no later than the first day of employment.

You, the employer or authorized representative, must either physically examine, or examine consistent with an alternative procedure authorized by the Secretary of DHS, the original, acceptable, and unexpired documentation the employee presents from the Lists of Acceptable Documents to complete the applicable document fields in Section 2. You cannot specify which documentation an employee may present from these Lists of Acceptable Documents. A document is acceptable if it reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to the person presenting it. Photocopies, except for certified copies of birth certificates, are not acceptable for Form I-9. Employees must present one selection from List A or a combination of one selection from List B and one selection from List C.

You may use common abbreviations for states, document titles, or issuing authorities, such as: “DL” for driver's license, and “SSA” for Social Security Administration. Refer to the M-274 for abbreviation suggestions.

List A documentation shows both identity and employment authorization.

- Enter the required information from the List A documentation in the first set of document entry fields in the List A column. Some List A documentation consists of a combination of documents that must be presented together to be considered acceptable List A documentation. If the employee presents a combination of documents for List A, use the second and third sets of document entry fields in the List A column. Use the Additional Information space, as necessary, for additional documents. When entering document information in this space, ensure you record all available document information, such as the document title, issuing authority, document number and expiration date.
- If an employee presents acceptable List A documentation, do not ask the employee to present List B and List C documentation.

- If an employee presents acceptable List B and List C documentation, enter the required information from the documentation under each corresponding column and do not ask the employee to present List A documentation.
- If an employee under the age of 18 or with disabilities (special placement) cannot provide List B documentation, see the M-274 for guidance.

In certain cases, the employee may present an acceptable receipt for List A, B, or C documentation. For more information on receipts, refer to the Lists of Acceptable Documents and the M-274.

Photocopies

- You may make photocopies of the documentation examined but must return the original documentation to the employee.
- You must retain any photocopies you make with Form I-9 in case of an inspection by DHS, the Department of Labor, or the Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Immigrant and Employee Rights Section.

Step 2: Enter additional information, if necessary.

Use the Additional Information field to record any additional information required to complete Section 2, or any updates that are necessary once Section 2 is complete. Initial and date each additional notation. See the M-274 for more information. Such notations include, but are not limited to:

- Those required by DHS, such as extensions of employment authorization or a document's expiration date.
- Replacement document information if a receipt was previously presented.
- Additional documentation that may be presented by certain nonimmigrant employees.

You may also enter optional information, such as termination dates, form retention dates, and E-Verify case numbers, if applicable.

Step 3: Select the box in the Additional Information area if you used an alternate procedure for document examination authorized by the Secretary of DHS.

You must select this box if you used an alternative procedure authorized by DHS to examine the documents. You may refer to the M-274 for guidance on implementing alternative procedures for document examination approved by the Secretary of DHS.

Step 4: Complete the employer certification.

Employers or their authorized representatives, if applicable, must complete all applicable fields in this area, and sign and date where indicated.

Reverification and Rehire

To reverify an employee's work authorization or document an employee's rehire, use Supplement B, Reverification and Rehire (formerly Section 3). Employers need only complete and retain the supplement page when employment authorization reverification is required. Employers may choose to document a rehire on the supplement as well. Enter the employee's name at the top of each supplement page you use. In the New Name field, record any change the employee reports at the time of reverification or rehire. Use a new section of the supplement for each instance of a reverification or rehire, sign and date that section when completed, and attach it to the employee's completed Form I-9. Use additional supplement pages as necessary. Use the Additional Information fields if the employee's documentation presented for reverification requires future updates.

Reverifications

When reverification is required, you must reverify the employee by the earlier of the employment authorization expiration date stated in Section 1 (if any), or the expiration date of the List A or List C employment authorization documentation recorded in Section 2. Employers should complete any subsequent reverifications, if required, by the expiration date of the List A or List C documentation entered during the employee's most recent reverification.

For reverification, employees must present acceptable documentation from either List A or List C showing their continuing authorization to work in the United States. You must allow employees to choose which acceptable documentation to present for reverification. Employees are not required to show the same type of document they presented previously. Enter the documentation information in the appropriate fields provided.

You should not reverify the employment authorization of U.S. citizens and noncitizen nationals, or lawful permanent residents (including conditional residents) who presented a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) or other employment authorization documentation that is not subject to reverification (such as an unrestricted Social Security card).

Reverification does not apply to List B documentation. Reverification may not apply to certain noncitizens. See the M-274 for more information about when reverification may not be required.

Rehires

If you rehire an employee within three years from the date the employee's Form I-9 was first completed, you may complete the supplement and attach it to the employee's previously completed Form I-9. If the employee remains employment-authorized, as indicated on the previously completed Form I-9, record the date of rehire and any name changes. If the employee's employment authorization or List A or C documents have expired, you must reverify the employee as described above.

Alternatively, you may complete a new Form I-9 for rehired employees. You must complete a new Form I-9 for any employee you rehired more than three years after you originally completed a Form I-9 for that employee.

Employee and Employer Instructions Related E-Verify

E-Verify uses Form I-9 information to confirm employees' employment eligibility. For more information, go to www.e-verify.gov or contact us at www.e-verify.gov/contact-us.

For employees of employers who participate in E-Verify:

- You must provide your Social Security number in the Social Security number field in Section 1.
 - If you have applied for, but have not yet received, your Social Security number, you should leave the field blank until you receive the number. Update this field once you receive it, and initial and date the notation.
 - If you can present acceptable identity and employment authorization documentation to complete Form I-9, you may begin working while waiting to receive your Social Security number.
- Providing your email address and telephone number in Section 1 will allow you to receive notifications associated with your E-Verify case.
- If you present a List B document to your employer, it must contain a photograph.

For E-Verify employers:

- Ensure employees enter their Social Security number in Section 1.
- You must only accept List B documentation that contains a photograph. This applies to individuals under the age of 18 and individuals with disabilities.
- You must retain photocopies of certain documentation.

What is the Filing Fee?

There is no fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any other government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the “DHS Privacy Notice” below.

Retaining Completed Forms I-9

An employer must retain Form I-9, including any supplement pages, on which the employee and employer (or authorized representative) entered data, as well as any photocopies made of the documentation the employee presented, for as long as the employee works for the employer. When employment ends, the employer must retain the individual's Form I-9 and all attachments for one year from the date employment ends, or three years after the first day of employment, whichever is later. In the case of recruiters or referrers for a fee (only applicable to those that are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors), the retention period is three years after the first day of employment.

Completed Forms I-9 and all accompanying documents should be stored in a safe and secure location. Employers should ensure that the information employees provide on Form I-9 is used only as stated in the DHS Privacy Notice below.

Form I-9 may be generated, signed, and retained electronically, in compliance with Department of Homeland Security regulations at 8 CFR section 274a.2. Employers creating, modifying, or storing Form I-9 electronically are encouraged to review these and any other relevant standards for electronic signature, and the indexing, security, and documentation of electronic Form I-9 data.

Penalties

Employers may be subject to penalties if Form I-9 is not properly completed or for employment discrimination occurring during the employment eligibility verification process. See 8 U.S.C. section 1324a and section 1324b, 8 CFR section 274a.10 and 28 CFR Part 44. Individuals may also be prosecuted for knowingly and willfully entering false information, or for presenting fraudulent documentation, to complete Form I-9.

Employees: By signing Section 1 of this form, employees attest under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. section 1746) that the information they provided, along with the citizenship or immigration status they select, and all information and documentation they provide to their employer, is true and correct, and they are aware that they may face penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution for knowingly and willfully making false statements or using false documentation when completing this form. Further, falsely attesting to U.S. citizenship may subject employees to penalties or removal proceedings, and may adversely affect an employee's ability to seek future immigration benefits.

Employers: By signing Sections 2 and 3, as applicable, employers attest under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. section 1746) that they have physically examined the documentation presented by the employee, that the documentation reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to the employee named, that to the best of their knowledge the employee is authorized to work in the United States, that the information they enter in Section 2 is complete, true, and correct to the best of their knowledge, and that they are aware that they may face civil or criminal penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution for knowingly and willfully making false statements or knowingly accepting false documentation when completing Form I-9.
